NATIONAL WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE

Report Cabinet Putting 'Teeth' In Labor Code

By JACK WILLIAMS

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—(CP)—New responsibilities for both employers and labor organizations in maintaining sound labor relations are expected to be an important part of a new labor code which now is in the final draft stage, it was learned yesterday.

The code, with other recommendations based on the National Labor Board's report on its inquiry into wage conditions and labor relations, were before the cabinet for further consideration yesterday. Publication of the reports, with an indication of government policy toward them, is expected within a few days.

PROVIDE 'TEETH'

A Canadian labor code providing "teeth" in the form of penalties for infractions is understood to be one of the important results of the inquiry and reports.

Speculation on the reports and the attitude the government has adopted toward them has centered largely on the question of what steps will be taken to improve the position of low-paid workers but in some labor quarters it is felt that a comprehensive labor code would be of even greater significance from a post-war point of view.

Enormous Damage At Rail Centre

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Oct. 6.—(CP)—Photographs taken by R.A.F. and U.S.A.F. Warplanes yesterday showed enormous damage to the rail center north of Naples, Monday night showed an enormous hole surrounded for hundreds of yards by intense blackening of the soil, where a previous raid had apparently touched off an ammunition dump, air authorities said yesterday.

Another big explosion was noticed Monday night. Lt. Edward Benkinson, of Victoria, B.C., said he saw many bomb bursts in the target area and as the attack developed a road junction was covered with a cloud of smoke.

Sgt. Ldr. Clare Amies, of 1215th St. S. Edmonton, said a dozen trains derailed on the junction.

Deny Britain Using U.S. Oil To Save Own

By J. F. SANDERSON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(CP)—President Roosevelt denied yesterday that Britain has been drawing unnecessarily on American oil reserves, while saving her own supplies in Middle East fields.

The original charge was made by a group of American senators who returned recently from a trip to the battle front. It was denied categorically yesterday by the President, who said the distribution of oil products by the Allied high command was dictated by geography and tanker tonnage, not politics.

HEAVY TANKER LOSS

A year or more ago, Allied tankers were being sunk at an alarming rate, the President told a press conference, with the result the dwindling fleet had to be used to the best military advantage in supplying the wide-front battle zones. For instance, from Iran to New Caledonia is 9,800 miles, but from California only 5,000 miles. From Iran to Britain, by the Cape of Good Hope is 12,000 miles and from Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean ports, only 4,600 miles.

As long as the Allied tanker fleet was in a seriously short position, these comparatively short runs were imperative. Six months ago, however, the tankers began to increase in number and now, since the Sicilian and Italian campaigns have opened the Mediterranean to Allied shipping, the tanker fleet has increased its shorter runs again, because it has shorter routes to sail.

The President said that a general shortage of oil sources now is in progress, with the British-controlled fleets in Iran supplying more than they were as long as the Mediterranean was closed to Allied shipping.

Smokes Scarce

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Americans are smoking borrowed cigarettes. They're being borrowed from next year's supply and even from 1945 tobacco reserves, the United States Commerce Department said yesterday in reporting that a "substantial gap" between demand and supply.

F.D.R. Detects Jap Weakness In S. Pacific

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(AP)

President Roosevelt said yesterday he detected signs of Japanese weakness in the whole Solomon Islands-New Guinea area.

Mr. Roosevelt, who also is commander-in-chief of United States forces, briefly reviewed the situation at a press-radio conference. He said that the way the Japanese were being defeated and were retreating in the Solomon Islands, New Guinea area, and the destruction of great numbers of their transport barges was proof, in his opinion, of the enemy's weakness in the entire region.

MORE "ATTENTION"

Continuing, Mr. Roosevelt expressed belief that more attention should be given to this factor. The barges of wood and steel, he said, are the only Japanese means of transport and great numbers have been destroyed in the past 30 days by Allied air forces.

Some enemy vessels also have been sunk, he added.

The president said that in Italy, the 5th and 8th Armies were consolidating their positions and making fairly good progress up the peninsula. No one yet knows, he said, where the Germans will make their next main stand.

In the center, Mr. Roosevelt said, and to a certain extent on the right flank, there were mountains 8,000 feet high which did not make the operations an afternoon walk.

When last seen the bomber was headed back toward Germany at about 5,000 feet, straight and level.

HISTORIC "FIRSTS" IN RUBBER

FIRST in America TO SELL CORD TIRES

A few years before 1910, electric bicycles became a popular means of transportation. These quiet, dignified contraptions offered a temporary threat to the supremacy of the then noisy automobile.

It was during this period of the bicycle's popularity that B. F. Goodrich first placed on the American market a tire made from individual cords, each embedded in rubber. Prior to that time tires were being made from square woven fabric. The superiority of this new construction was immediately apparent. Friction inside the tire carcass was reduced—less heat was generated—with the result that the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown Cord Tire gave greater mileage than ever before.

This was another historic "first" in rubber, given to the motoring public by B. F. Goodrich—the company that as early as 1892 established the first research laboratories in the rubber industry. The intensive research program that has continued to be a paramount part of this company's activities has since resulted in many other "firsts" that have helped to make rubber serve man better.

TODAY B. F. Goodrich research is helping to solve war problems . . . but at the same time it is working to produce new and still better tires for the future. When rubber again becomes available for civilian use—whether it be gayety, natural, reclaimed or any other—B. F. Goodrich research and manufacturing facilities will make the finest tires that can be built from it—tires that will give the maximum in comfort, durability and non-skid safety.

SAFETY FIRSTS . . . that make your tires last longer

• Drive below 40 M.P.H. • Check tire inflation weekly • Have your tires inspected regularly

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin Copyright 1943 by British United Press
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—With so many experts streamlining psychology, phobias and complexes in connection with the world series, we asked: +
"Do you think you'll be able to get in there against the Yanks this time?"
But the husky, brown-haired guy in the gray suit went neither way nor squiver. He set his arctic on the lobby floor of the hotel New Yorker, grinned broadly and said: "Sure, I'll be able to pitch in the series. My shoulder feels a lot better now. Just had a cold in it. No, I don't know what game Billy (Southworth) intends to start me in but I'll be out there before it's over." He seemed eager to face the Yanks again.

NO BETRAYING SIGNAL
W. L. waited his facial muscles for a tell-tale jerk, and his eyes for a giveaway shift. He watched for some clue that might indicate he was merely whistling past the graveyard. But there was no betraying signal that he feared the Yanks or anyone in an American League uniform. Despite printed insinuations to the contrary because of his pitching complex because of his pitching failures in two games of last year's series with the Yanks and because of his poor performances in the past two all-star games.

Cogger, just off the train from St. Louis, stood there in the busy hotel lobby—beside his slender wife, Berenice—and answered questions with grinning frankness.
What was wrong with his previous pitching against American League?—the kind of pitching that had made him such a success in the National Circuit—that had given him 21 victories against eight defeats this season, and 142 strikeouts.

CHANGE OF DIET
"I think I've been giving those boys the wrong kind of diet," he said. "I believe I've got it figured out—what was wrong, I mean. No, I can't put my mitt about that, now. We'll just have to wait till I get in there this time, and let those Yanks find out for themselves what a change of diet will do."
His brown eyes sparkled like those of a man who had made a happy discovery. ... Berenice's eyes sparkled too. He had made her the big secret.

As the Coopers of Webster Groves, Mo., moved toward the desk to ask for their mail, reporters began trying to analyze the high right-hander's remarks. One of them recalled reports that Mort had been trying to feed curves to American League hitters, instead of logging over his high, hard fast ones, as he usually did against National circuit batters. He might have been out-smarting himself.

QUEBEC, Oct. 6.—(CP)—Premier Godbout said here yesterday that the day French becomes "the second language" of English-speaking Canadians, unity will be reached in Canada. Mr. Godbout, speaking before a luncheon gathering sponsored jointly by the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs said "the day French becomes the second language of English speaking Canadians, as English is the second language, cordial understanding surely will be an integral part of our national life."

Vatican Diplomats Said Destroying Private Papers
LONDON, Oct. 6.—(CP)—Diplomats accredited to the Vatican are burning confidential papers in fear that the Germans will violate papal secrecy when shelling Rome. The Daily Mail said yesterday in a dispatch from Madrid:
The story added that even Luigi Cardinal Maglione, papal secretary of state, was destroying documents which would disclose the identity of persons in Germany who have lent the Pope information of Nazi steps against the church.

Syracuse Comes Through 5-1 In Third Game Little Series

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Oct. 6.—(CP)—Syracuse Chiefs, International League champions, after losing two straight, crashed back into the running of the little world series last night, defeating Columbus Red Birds of the American Association 5-1. The Chiefs struffed two Red Bird hurlers for nine hits while Lefty Arnold Carter was giving up five before a crowd of 4,057.

The Chiefs put the game away early, shelling Ken Burkhardt from the mound in the first inning with a six-hit attack that produced four runs. They added another in the third off relief hurler Francis Red Barrett, who hand-cuffed Syracuse from then on.

Carter, the first southpaw the Chiefs have sent against Columbus, yielded a run in the second inning when the Birds launched a couple of singles, but had everything under control the rest of the way, striking out five.

Goody Rosen, Van Harrington and Hank Sauer greeted Burkhardt with consecutive and solid singles, and then, after two were out, Dick West, Gar Del Salvo and Damon Phillips exploded with another trio. After Carter had walked, Barrett came in and put out the fire on one pitched ball.

Barrett pitched a beautiful relief job, limiting the Chiefs to three hits and fanning three.

With Columbus leading two games to one, the series came shifts to Columbus where, starting Thursday night, the concluding game will be staged, with Columbus Ted Wilks expected to clock up in another mound duel with Millard (Dixie) Howell.

Singles by Joe Mack and John Antoselli and Tommy Heala's long fly accounted for the Birds' lone run. Syracuse's third-inning marker came when Phillips' single scored Del Salvo, who reached base on an error.

The three-game players' pool reached $65,337.

Canadians Warned Against Thinking War Nearly Over

Field Marshal Sir John Dill, senior representative in Washington for the chiefs of the British general staff, warned in an interview last night that "there would be nothing more dangerous than thinking that the war is nearly over."
Here in the course of a tour to the "Canada at war" in Canada, Sir John mentioned that he had witnessed a public relations training operation on Vancouver Island yesterday and declared these soldiers did not train in vain.

"Germany is having a very bad time but there would be nothing more dangerous than thinking the war is nearly over. This time it is not a question of fourteen points but unconditional surrender."

Referring to Japan he said Canada as a Pacific power naturally had a great interest in the Pacific war and added that "nobody is going to pull any punches in connection with Japan."

Believes Canadian, U.S. Defence Board Is Here to Stay

SEATTLE, Oct. 6.—(CP)—Rear Admiral V. G. Bedford, C.B.E., new Pacific coast commander of the Royal Canadian Navy, expressed the belief yesterday that "there is no question in my mind but that the United States Canada Permanent Defence Board has come to stay."

It has already accomplished marvels in clearing away misunderstandings, he declared in an interview after a conference here with Rear Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher, commander of the 13th Naval District and the northwest sea frontier, of submarine warfare in the Atlantic, he commented.

The Naals were obviously cooking up something. They had been losing so many submarines that they decided not to risk their ships until they had a new form of attack—and now they appear to have it. Far, but I am convinced their success is only temporary."
